

SLATE OF NOMINEES FOR ELECTION TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
2019-2020
SUMMARY OF CANDIDATES

The Board posted a 'Call for Nominations'. The Board received two nominations for the position of 'Community Representative'.

The Board of Directors for the Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre presents the 'Slate of Nominees' for election to the Board of Directors for the Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre at the 21st Annual General Meeting to be held in Sudbury, Ontario on Tuesday, June 25th, 2019 at 4:30 pm at the SKHC Main Centre located at 161 Applegrove Street.

Elizabeth Hamilton (3 year term 2019-2022)
(Renewal as a Community Representative)

Elizabeth Hamilton has been a committed member of the Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre for a number of years. She is currently the Executive Director of the Jubilee Heritage Family Resources and is responsible for overseeing the Aboriginal Daycare along with many others within the Sudbury Community. It has been a pleasure for Elizabeth to sit on the SKHC Board and she is very appreciative of the knowledge of First Nations culture that she has gained from her experiences and has had the opportunity to incorporate this learning into programming within the Daycare.

Kathy Dokis (3 year term 2019-2022)
(Renewal as a Community Representative)

Kathy Dokis is a community leader and has provided leadership in the capacity of a board member of the Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre for a number of years. Kathy's nomination has been reviewed by the board and does meet all eligibility criteria. Kathy consistently gives back to the community through her dedication and commitment to higher education and healthy living. She is very familiar with and respects SKHC's philosophy, and understands the importance of being culturally sensitive towards all community members.

Kathy currently works for the Rainbow District School Board as the principle of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit programming. In this position she has been a strong advocate for the youth of the community and is active in empowering and creating opportunities for the youth. Her experience with the youth in this position will bring a fresh perspective to the Board of Directors.

In addition to the many community contributions that Kathy provides she also services as a member of the Laurentian University Board of Governors.
