SHKAGAMIK-KWE HEALTH CENTRE

Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre (SKHC) is acting as the funding recipient for the approved Indigenous Interprofessional Primary Care Team (IIPCT) development and transition to a standalone entity the Sweet Grass Health Centre, which provides health care services to the Indigenous community including a wide range of programming services including traditional healing, primary care, health promotion, addictions counselling, mental wellness care, diabetes care, youth empowerment and many other programs. These are provided in a culturally safe manner to the urban aboriginal population living in the Cochrane, Kapuskasing and Hearst areas and partner First Nations of Taykwa Tagamou, Wahgoshig and Constance Lake.

All services are based on implementing best practices for community health care while prioritizing the incorporation of traditional teachings, cultural value systems and traditional healing methods of Aboriginal values emphasizing the connectedness of emotional, spiritual, physical and mental well-being. This unique approach is what makes SKHC and the new Sweet Grass Health Centre so important to the area's Aboriginal population. We provide these services and activities in a culturally safe environment that honours the teachings of our ancestral relations.
